

From rolling return observations to an empirical measure

Rolling window of normalized returns

one row = one multivariate return vector in $\mathbb{R}^N$ assign uniform mass $\frac{1}{T_{k, \tau}}$ to each observation

Discrete empirical measure

